National Charity for Miss America,
State and Local Competitions

Mission Statement for the Miss Hanover Scholarship Program and the Miss Virginia and Miss America Organizations:

- To provide unique opportunities for young women to win scholarship awards as a means of achieving their educational goals;
- To create and maintain an honorable system of competition that enhances career opportunities and produces role models who represent positive, wholesome American values;
- To encourage the spirit of volunteerism and goodwill in our local community, state and nation.

Purpose

The Miss America Organization, with its state and local affiliates, is the largest resource in the world for women to receive educational scholarships. In 2010, the MAO made available over $40 million dollars to more than 12,000 women in our nation.

The Miss Hanover Scholarship Program awards scholarships to deserving young women 17-24 years old and provides a forum for their community service.

The Miss Hanover Scholarship Program is a non-profit program that relies solely on the support of local citizens, businesses and civic organizations whose charitable contributions make it possible to award scholarships.

History of Miss Hanover ....

The four Miss Hanover ladies have achieved remarkable success and earned scholarships in the Miss Virginia and Miss America Organization. Three of the four winners placed in the Top 11 at Miss Virginia and one was Miss America 2010. Three ladies have graduated from college. The first Miss Hanover 2008, Caressa Cameron, placed 1st runner-up at Miss Virginia. The next year she represented Arlington and won Miss Virginia and Miss America 2010. The second Miss Hanover was Brittany Young, daughter of Bill & Beverly Young of Hanover, and the third Miss Hanover was Erica Seredni, also a Top 10 finalist. Miss Hanover 2011 is Miranda Harrison, who is now a freshman at Marshall University in West Virginia.

Hanover County's representatives are dynamic women and each one contributes part of her educational accomplishments to the scholarship dollars won in the Miss Hanover Scholarship Program.
